MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence

FROM: Chief, Interdepartmental Affairs Staff, OPP

SUBJECT: Export Administration Review Board Meeting

1. Per your request, the attached material has been provided by [ ] center to enable you to decide whether you or someone else should attend the EARB meeting tomorrow. The meeting will address the International Harvester and Caterpillar Tractor applications as well as the Ingersoll-Rand inquiry regarding compressors.

2. The material includes:

Tab A - Cover memo explaining the issues

Tab B - SecCom memo announcing the meeting

Tab C - NFAC background memo on EARB (1st paragraph only)

Tab D - NFAC memos on IH sale

Tab E - NIO/E memo on pipeline compressors

Tab F - NFAC memo establishing the Technology Transfer Center

Tab G - DCI report on technology transfer (copies for DCI and DDCI only)

3. It appears, as indicated in the first paragraph of [ ] cover memo, that Commerce is attempting to reestablish its dominance in the area of technology transfer. It is hard to judge how the other departments will be represented. While these issues are important, you may wish to consider sending someone below Cabinet rank to the first meeting to get a sense of where this effort is likely to go. [ ] people will try to ascertain today who is likely to attend from the other departments.
